Data Scientist

 Bhadrachalam, Telangana
507111, India

Data Science is my passion, to learn new skills when it comes to the area of Data Science with Industry and where it is used in Day- Day Life.

My greatest strength is to connect with more people and skills and to learn the mistakes of other people, to encounter them when a problem comes to me. I want to do many things for myself and my career to sit in the top position of my career.
